

Overall Audition and portfolio Rubric (3 pages)

Component	Point Value	Percent value
Portfolio I	30	30%
Interview II	20	20%
Audition III	50	50%
Total	100	100%

I. Portfolio Rubric

Points	30 points	20points	10 points	0 points
Portfolio 30 points	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Consists of six pieces or more.</li> <li>- Includes all portfolio requirements, as described on our website, www.artanddesignhs.org as well as on MySchools.com</li> <li>-Artwork includes a variety of media.</li> <li>- Artwork demonstrates experimentation in using most elements of Art and principles of design.</li> <li>-Artwork is neatly presented and shows great effort.</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>-Portfolio shows artistic potential but did not follow all of the portfolio requirements in regards to number of pieces submitted and/or the basic requirements</li> <li>-Artwork does not consistently demonstrate understanding and implementation of elements of art and principles of design.</li> <li>-Artwork shows a moderate amount of effort</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>-Portfolio did not include the two required pieces.</li> <li>-Makes little or no attempt to follow the portfolio guidelines.</li> <li>-Overall portfolio is disorganized, demonstrating very little effort</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>-Does not submit a portfolio</li> </ul>

III. Audition Rubric.

Points	50 points	40 points	30 points	20 points	10 points
Audition 50 points	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>-Figure drawing completed and submitted in all four stages of completion</li> <li>- Creative task completed.</li> <li>- Both tasks shows effort and creativity by students.</li> <li>- Drawings include background details</li> <li>-Drawings are rendered and include shading</li> <li>-Figure drawing demonstrates realistic proportions</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>-Figure drawing completed and submitted in some stages of completion.</li> <li>- Creative task completed.</li> <li>- Both tasks shows some effort and creativity by students.</li> <li>- Drawings include some background elements.</li> <li>-Drawings are rendered with limited shading</li> <li>-Figure drawing has somewhat realistic proportions</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>-Figure drawing completed and submitted in three or more stages of completion</li> <li>- Creative task completed.</li> <li>- Both tasks shows effort and creativity by students.</li> <li>- Drawings include limited background elements</li> <li>-Drawings are line drawings with no attempt at shading-Figure drawing lacks realistic proportions</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>-Figure drawing completed and submitted.</li> <li>- Creative task completed and submitted.</li> <li>- Both tasks shows effort and creativity by students.</li> <li>- Drawings include limited background details</li> <li>-Drawings are line drawings with no attempt at shading</li> <li>-No attempt to create realistic proportions</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>-Figure drawing omitted.</li> <li>- Creative task completed.</li> <li>- Drawing demonstrate some effort and creativity by students.</li> </ul>

III. Introduction Component

Prospective students will upload a short video or written explanation about the uploaded portfolio pieces of original artwork.

1. Discuss choice of subject
2. What did you choose the materials you used in your artworks?
3. What motivated you to prepare this portfolio for the program you applied to?
4. What influenced you in preparing this introduction?
5. Your video should be no longer than 2 minutes. Written explanations should be no more than 500 words

Points	20 points	15 points	10 points	5 points
Video/ Written Component 20 points	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>-Spoke/wrote clearly and articulated the choice of subject of their uploaded portfolio pieces. in a positive manner</li><li>- Addressed all materials used in the different artworks.</li><li>- Explained their motivation for including these in their portfolio.</li><li>-Could articulate what influenced their decision in completing this portfolio and submitting it.</li><li>- Written explanation was within 500 words; video did not exceed 2 minutes and was well prepared to introduce themselves.</li></ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>-Spoke/wrote clearly and articulated the choice of subject of their uploaded portfolio pieces.</li><li>- Addressed all materials used in the different artworks.</li><li>- Not fully explained their motivation for including these in their portfolio.</li><li>-Could somewhat articulate what influenced their decision in completing this portfolio and submitting it.</li><li>- Written explanation was within 500 words; -video did not exceed 2 minutes. Was prepared for video.</li></ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>-Spoke/wrote what the portfolio pieces included</li><li>- Somewhat addressed the use of materials in the essay/video.</li><li>-Did not address both motivation and influence of portfolio in introducing themselves.</li><li>- Written explanation was short of 500 words;</li><li>- Was not fully prepared for the video</li></ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>-Spoke/ wrote hesitatingly and without clear language the development of the portfolio.</li><li>- Answered only one of the topics in the introduction.</li><li>- Vaguely connected the essay/video to the portfolio.</li><li>- Was not fully prepared for the video or the written introduction.</li></ul>